

Indian Natural Resources

INRSEP + Diversity in STEM

Science & Engineering Program

The purpose of Indian Natural Resource Science and Engineering Program (INRSEP) + Diversity in STEM is to provide academic and research support services to first generation, low income and other students historically underrepresented in STEM in order to ensure their academic success in STEM fields.

Student Application

Name:

Student ID:

Major:

Minor:

Are You Hispanic/Latino Yes No

Race:

Tribal Affiliation (if applicable)

Are you enrolled in a tribe? Yes No

Please indicate your parents' level of education:

Mother: No College

Some College

College Graduate

Graduate School

Father: No College

Some College

College Graduate

Graduate School

Dietary Restrictions:

Local Address:

City:

State:

Zip Code:

Phone #:

Email:

Emergency Contact:

Name:

Relationship:

Phone:

Research Interests:

- I give permission to INRSEP to use my name, photo, research products and academic achievements at INRSEP/HSU for the purposes of public relations including newsletters, announcements and on-line or print publications.
- I grant INRSEP and its staff complete access to any and all information about me on file with HSU that is necessary to provide me with academic support, professional development, scholarships and other financial aid support, mentorship and other services for the successful completion of my degree. Information necessary includes, but is not limited to: college financial aid records, grades, units attempted and/or earned, academic evaluations, email and other contact information, disciplinary actions, counseling appointments, attendance, disabled student support records, awards, and club participation.

Signature:

Date:

Please submit application to Amanda Staack at aib3@humboldt.edu

1 Harpst Street, House #38. Arcata, CA 95521. Phone: 707-826-4998.